

Getting to the Design Hub

---

The Design Hub is only 5 minutes from the city centre, but can be a tricky place to find the first time, here is your handy guide to finding us.

Walking from Queen Street Station

Leave the station via the North Hanover Street Exit

---

The Design Hub R13, 100 Borron street, Glasgow, G4 9XG
T: 0141 353 5490 W: www.design-hub.co.uk

Turn left up the hill, and keep straight. You'll pass Buchanan Galleries and the Bus Station.

When you reach the BMW dealership, turn left and go down the hill. You'll pass Dales bike shop.

At the bottom of the road you want to cross underneath the motorway. Best to stick to the right hand side.

Once under the motorway follow the path up the hill to your left. When you reach the roundabout, continue straight.

At the junction turn right. You will have the canal on your right.

Look out for the Pinkston Paddlesports Centre on your right and immediately opposite is 100 Borron Street. You can't miss the giant '100'. Turn left up the hill.

At the top of the hill, you'll see the entrance to 100 Borron Street.

Continue straight.

Look out for the red door on your right and the 'design hub' sign

Welcome! Would you like a cup of tea?

From the M8 Motorway coming from Edinburgh (the east)

Watch the Video <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4nockPMEf0c&feature=youtu.be>

Look out for Junction 16 to George Square

Exit at Junction 16, stay in the right lane.

Turn right.

Follow the road to the left. Continue straight at the roundabout.

Turn right at the lights. The canal will be on your right.

Look out for the Pinkston Paddlesports Centre on your right and immediately opposite is 100 Borron Street. You can't miss the giant '100'. Turn left up the hill.

At the top of the hill, you'll see the entrance to 100 Borron Street.

Continue straight.

Look out for the red door on your right and the 'design hub' sign

Welcome! Would you like a cup of tea?

From the M8 Motorway coming from Dumfries (the south/west)

Watch the Video <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nK7H8oI8iZw&feature=youtu.be>

Look out for Junction 15 to Springburn.

Exit at Junction 15.

Continue straight to Springburn.

Continue straight.

Turn left at the first lights. Follow the road straight.

Turn right at the end of the road.

Take your first left.

Look out for the Pinkston Paddlesports Centre on your left and immediately opposite is 100 Borron Street. You can't miss the giant '100'. Turn right up the hill.

At the top of the hill, you'll see the entrance to 100 Borron Street.

Continue straight.

Look out for the red door on your right and the 'design hub' sign

Welcome! Would you like a cup of tea?